WORKSHOP AGENDA

UNCRC Monitoring and Reporting in Vietnam: coordination mechanism and the role of NGOs and Civil Society

(18th – 19th September, 2012)

Time	Content	Methods & Tools[1]	Hand-out and Documents	Facilitator(s)
Day 1
	Welcome and Introduction	Presentation
	Overview of workshop program - Objectives and expectations - Program overview	Group discussion and presentation
	Session 1: UNCRC reporting & Universal Periodic Review (UPR) mechanisms
	Overview - UNCRC - CRC complementary reporting (key concepts and principles, mechanism, cycle, general comments, concluding observations)	Presentation		Eva Maria Cayanan/Save the Children
	Tea break
	Overview (cont.) - UPR mechanism Group Discussion: - What would be the implications of UPR mechanism to the work of child rights advocacy in Vietnam?	Presentation		Eva Maria Cayanan (Eva) /Save the Children
	Lunch break
	Session 2: UNCRC reporting: lessons learnt and experience from the region
	Lessons learnt - Presentation on CRC Complementary reporting 2002 - 2007	Presentation		- Presentation: CRWG – Save the Children

[1] Methods and tools are subjected to change according to participants/target groups.

	- Group discussion on 4 keys questions/areas for learning: (1) Coordination and submission (technical and procedural/operational) (2) Data collection and report quality (reliability and validity) (3) Transparency and interaction/dialogue with the government (4) Participation of CSOs/NGOs and resource mobilization (5) Participation and voice of children (6) Advocacy			and/or Plan International Group discussion: Taskforce members: ChildFund, Save, Plan, VAPCR, Cenforchil, Saigon Charity etc…
	Tea break
	Lessons learnt (Cont.) - Group presentation Sharing from Save the Children Philippines - On 5 key aspects - On the follow-up of concluding observations - On the tools and results of data collections - On lessons learnt Sharing from other networks on NGOs reporting (GENCOMNET or VCSPA)	Group presentation Presentation		Group discussion: Taskforce members: ChildFund, Save, Plan, VAPCR, Cenforchil, Saigon Charity etc… Presentations: Minerva Cabungcal Cabiles (Bi) – Save the Children and Representative from GENCOMNET or VCSPA
	End of Day 1
Day 2
	Overview of Day 1 Q&A	Reflection and presentation		Co-chair: ChildFund and/or VAPCR Eva and Bi
	Session 3: Next reporting cycle: How to move forward

	How to move forward WHAT - Concluding observations: how to monitor the progress and results - Focuses/key themes for data collection and reporting	Presentation		Presentations: - Save the Children or Plan International - UNICEF Vietnam
	Tea break
	How to move forward (cont.)	Group discussion		Taskforce members or Co-chairs
	Lunch break
	How to move forward (cont.) HOW - Methodology and Process - Coordination and resource mobilization (more participation from CSOs and children) - Children's Report	Presentation		Presentations: - Save the Children (on methodology, process and CSOs participation) - Plan Int'l (on participation of children)
	Tea break
	How to move forward (cont.) - Group discussions - Plan forward	Group discussion		Taskforce members or Co-chairs
	Wrap up Day 1 and 2 Evaluation
	End of Day 2			