

Global Education Week – The biggest lesson

Dated 23 April, 2008

A. Objectives

1. Raise awareness of leaders, teachers, students and their parents about quality education for all
2. Raise awareness of the general public about the importance of quality education
3. Inform about situation of school drop out and reasons
4. Call for actions of leaders, policy makers and parents to improve the situation

B. Time: 23 April 2008, 14h00 to 16h30

C. Venue: Thăng Long lower secondary school – 46 Nguyen Van Ngoc Street, Ba Dinh, Hanoi

D. Participants:

1. Leaders and decision makers from the Ministry of Education and Training (vice minister or priminister and leaders from different departments), the Hanoi Department of Education and Training, Hanoi and Center Education Promotion Associations, the National Assembly's Committee for Culture, Education, Youth & Children; the Government Office's National Council for Education, Hanoi City People Committee, and Ba Dinh District People Committee.
2. Teachers and students including drop out children
3. Association of ex-teachers
4. National and international organizations including ActionAid, Aide et Action, ChildFund, Oxfam, Plan, UNICEF, CRS, Save Children Sweden, World Vision and the Vietnam-Belgium Education Project
5. TV and other media

5. Programme

Time	Activities	Person in charge
14:00 – 14:15	Reception	Thang Long lower secondary school (LSS)
14:15 – 14:30	Art performance of students	Thang Long LSS
14:30 – 14:35	Welcome and introduction	Thang Long LSS
14:35 – 14:45	Opening speech	MoET
14:45 – 14:55	Welcom speech	UNESCO
14:55 – 15:00	Preparation for the Biggest Lesson	Thang Long LSS
15:00 – 15:30	“The Biggest Lesson”	Thang Long LSS
15:30 – 15:50	Presenting of the dossier (play)	Thang Long LSS
15:50 – 16:20	Dialog with leaders	Thang Long LSS
16:20 – 16:30	Press release announcement	MOET
16:30	Closing	Thang Long LSS